Sequoia Realty Services Continues to Grow Within San Mateo County

Anthony Kamm, Ryan Pegnim, Armand Anicete and Frank Orrell will focus on industrial and office markets

REDWOOD CITY, CA. January 19, 2011 –Sequoia Realty Services, a full-service real estate company serving the Lower Peninsula and portions of Santa Clara County with an expansive portfolio of office, retail, industrial and residential properties, announced the addition of Anthony Kamm, Ryan Pegnim, Armand Anicete and Frank Orrell to its Commercial Division.

“I am extremely excited about the energy and market knowledge these four agents bring to the SRS family. Our clients and partners will greatly benefit from the day-to-day market interactions of these agents,” Jeff Badstubner, Vice President of Sequoia Realty Services.

Anthony Kamm and Ryan Pegnim are Co-Managers for the Commercial Division. Together, they will increase awareness of Sequoia Realty Services within the industrial and office markets of South San Mateo County. Anthony and Ryan were Senior Advisors at Coldwell Banker and contributing members of the No. 1 producing teams for 2008 and 2009.

Armand Anicete is a Sales and Leasing Agent concentrating on the southern part of San Mateo County. He began his real estate career in 2008, and recently supported two senior agents localized within the industrial markets of San Carlos, Redwood City and Menlo Park.

Frank Orrell is also a Sales and Leasing Agent, traversing the county from north to south in the industrial market. His diverse background includes experience overseas with New City Asia Fund Management in their Singapore office where he dealt primarily with investor relations and the underwriting of seed assets for the fund.

Sequoia Realty Services continues to build upon its local market presence with the addition of these new agents. In 2010, the Residential and Commercial teams were responsible for over 47 transactions within San Mateo County alone—with a combined value in excess of $31 million.
